Athens County Job and Family Services is changing its mailing address effective on Monday, June 3.

The address change also applies for the Athens County Child Support Enforcement Agency, which is part of Athens County Job and Family Services.

The new mailing address will be 13183 State Route 13, Millfield, Ohio 45761-9901.

The new mailing address is the address of the Athens County Job and Family Services County Home Building, which is located near the Athens County Dog Shelter and the Athens County Recycling Center just outside of Chauncey.

Athens County Job and Family Services has offices in four buildings in the county and all of the buildings are remaining open. The mailing address was changed to reflect the fact the majority of agency programs are now located in the County Home Building.

All agency phone numbers and other contact information are remaining the same.
